

Name _____

Date _____

Bayles Humanities Reading Log

Hours read this week _____

1. Write a three to four sentence summary of the book you are reading. Write about what you have recently been reading about.
2. Describe in detail the strengths and the weaknesses of one of the characters in your book. Explain in detail which of these strengths you find admirable, and what weaknesses you can relate too.
3. In what ways is the setting described in your book the same or different from where you live, or go to school?
4. What is it about your book you enjoy the most? Why?
5. Figurative focus: In humanities we are focusing on figurative language. List some of the descriptive, and figurative words and phrases in your book.